

Directions to Swallow Barton Yarnscombe

from the A39

(c 6½ miles - 15 mins)

Take the A361 Link Road from Junction 27 of the M5 towards Barnstaple and at the roundabout at the junction of the A361 and the A39, take the first exit, following the A39.

At the first roundabout (Rumsam), turn left on to the A377, following signs to Bishop's Tawton and Crediton.

Follow this narrow, winding road for about three miles, turning right at Langley Cross and left at the next crossroads.

Follow the road into the village of Yarnscombe passing the Village Hall on your left and the old chapel on your right. Our house, Little Barton is the white house on the left after the telephone kiosk. (Look for the name on the front).

Drive up the driveway just past the house. Swallow Barton is the single-storey building on your right.

If we haven't already appeared, please ring the bell by our back door which is the other side of the low black and white wall.
